

Resources:

www.lcra.org – LCRA's front page, current messages, lake levels, temperature <http://hydromet.lcra.org/> - Map to access flow, lake level, stage data along with weather reports

<http://floodstatus.lcra.org/> – report put on the webpage during weather that provides information on operations of the Highland Lakes, provides links to NWS forecasts

<http://www.weather.gov/oh/ahps/> - Advance Hydrologic Prediction Service (AHPS),- NWS forecasts with history www.nhc.noaa.gov – National Hurricane center can provide forecasts of tropical weather, also provides mobile links <http://waterdata.usgs.gov/nwis> – map of status of USGS gages showing most recent stage and a week history, can access historical data.

streammail@usgs.gov – send an email with the USGS number in the subject line(example: 0862000 Colorado Rv at Wharton, Texas, an email will be sent with the latest stage www.tcrfc.org – provides information on FEMA mapping in the area, interactive maps www.llikefema.gov – provides radar links, evacuation route maps www.ready.gov – information on how to make an emergency action plan